4-H YOUTH ACTIVITIES

4-H Youth programs are non-formal, voluntary educational programs under the supervision of the Cooperative Extension Service of the University of California and the United States Department of Agriculture. They are part of Extension Teaching. The projects exhibited at the Fair by members are the results of their efforts under the supervision of adult volunteers. Youths may enroll on their 9th birthday or upon entering the 4th grade, and may be members until the end of the calendar year in which they become 19. Experimental and special programs may disregard these age limits.

FOR MORE INFORMATION ABOUT 4-H CALL THE LOCAL COOPERATIVE EXTENSION OFFICE IN LANCASTER, (661) 974-8824 or www.av4-h.org cc

County, District and State Fairs cannot legally carry liability insurance covering junior exhibitors and/or their exhibits. Liability insurance is the responsibility, and at the discretion, of the junior exhibitor. Therefore it is suggested that the junior exhibitors consider taking out a liability insurance policy covering themselves and their exhibits. The Antelope Valley Fair cannot accept liability for loss and/or damage to any exhibit. All 4-H Clubs will be required to work in the 4-H area before, during and after the fair; for times call Tammy Holzer (661) 332-9093, Brenda Moore (661) 802-6697, or Charlene Moore (661) 974-8824. The local uniform should be worn by all 4-H exhibitors and by helpers in sections for individual animals or club groups. The uniform is white trousers, white dress shirt, regulation hat, tie or scarf, and matching belt and shoes (brown shoes and brown belt etc.). Belts should be worn if the pants have belt loops. To exhibit at the Antelope Valley Fair, a 4-H youth must be 9 years old by January 1st of the current year. They must be enrolled in the projects in which they plan to exhibit. All exhibits must be marked with the age and year in the project as of January 1st in order to be judged. Exhibits must be ready for display at check-in. Guidelines for entering divisions: Beginning 1st & 2nd years, Intermediate - 3rd & 4th years and Advanced - 5th year & above. State Rules and Health Regulations applicable to the Senior Department apply also to the Jr. Department. NO MEMBER MAY BE ON THE GROUNDS AFTER THE FAIR HAS CLOSED.

4-H YOUTH EXHIBITORS INSTRUCTIONS:

All entries in the following divisions must have been made, collected, grown or prepared entirely by the exhibitors, who were enrolled in those projects in the 4-H Youth Program, within one year of the opening day of the Fair. Must be done in accordance with directions and recipes in project manuals and outlines. Check carefully for the recommended kind and size of container, and method of labeling. Only standard containers, specifically designed for the purpose, will be accepted. Age and year in project must be on entry form and on item entered.

EXHIBITS WILL NOT BE REMOVED BEFORE THE RELEASE DATE IN THE PREMIUM BOOK.

No exhibits will be returned without a claim check.

Exhibits not picked up will be taken to the 4-H Office, located in at 335 East Ave. K-10, Lancaster, CA 93535 (661)974-8824. Food items which will be disposed.

All Complaints go through Tammy Holzer or Brenda Moore, if not resolved. Please go to Entry Office for Formal Protest. Charge for Formal Protest are $500. See State Rule- V. Protest.

JUDGING SCALE AND ENTRY REQUIREMENTS: The Danish System of judging is based upon established standards of quality for each type of product. In this system each exhibit is judged according to how well it meets the standard rather than how it compares to other exhibits. In all Junior Departments using the Danish System, the following judging scale shall be used by all judges:

QUALITY SCORE RIBBON	3rd Group Average 70%-79%-White
1st Group Superior 90%-100%- Blue	4th Group Poor 69% & Less- Pink
2nd Group Good 80%-89%- Red	Best of Show- Rosette, Merit Rosette
